Wedding favors are the small gifts that the bride and groom offer their guests at their wedding to show how much they appreciate them being there on this special day. This is a personal choice and there is no wrong thing to give as long as it comes from your heart!

Here is a scenario that can happen at your wedding reception. The excitement of the ceremony is over and now it is time to eat and socialize. Many of the middle aged and older guests may find themselves getting sleepy after they eat.

About this time you bring out the coffee which certainly can help. Another thing that can jolt everyone back to being awake is a little bit of chocolate. There are many different types of favors that you can choose to use at your wedding.

However, one of the more popular ones is the chocolate wedding favors. Hershey's is one of the largest chocolate manufacturer's in the world and as you will see a little later in this article may be able to help you out.

Here are some tips that you can use to help you choose the right ones if you plan on giving out chocolate favors.

Most of the chocolate favors for your wedding will be edible but there are some that are designed to look like chocolate but are not. For example, chocolate candles can be made to look like bon bon's but obviously they are not edible. So be careful which of the chocolate favors you choose to use.

Make sure that your chocolate wedding favors match the theme for your wedding reception. Choosing the right ones will make everything look right and beautiful. You can get gifts that are chocolate to give out for just a few bucks.

Decide if you want to get them personalized. You can have the names of the bride and groom and the date of the wedding printed on the gift tags. You can also have images, names and colors incorporated on the favors and made of chocolate.

Another fun souvenir to give out made of chocolate is Hershey bars that are personalized with your name, and wedding date. Indulge your guest's senses with personalized smooth and creamy Hershey's Milk Chocolate Bar favors.

Hershey can make wrappers for gifts of just about anything out of chocolate including decorative wrappers of bookmarkers, flip flops, his and her chairs, pine cones, roses, casino chips, two butterflies, and a slogan of your choice.

When you choose the chocolate wedding favors you want to keep these tips in mind. This will help you choose the right favors for your big day. Just remember that everyone loves chocolate so you can not go wrong giving it for gifts on your wedding day.
