

Wedding Dresses: The Magical Stuff of Summer Wedding Dreams

Contributed by sarah Beaumont
Friday, 11 April 2008

You float down the aisle towards the altar where your groom waits, and in the background, you hear the soulful serenade of Chris Ledoux:

"Just look at you, girl

Standin' here beside me

Starlight on your hair

Looking like a dream I dreamed somewhere..."

You are indeed a beautiful vision in your wedding gown of French lace and pastel floral beadwork. That's how wedding dresses can magically transform brides to fairy princesses. So choose one design from those lovely wedding gowns to make your march down the aisle the stuff that dreams are made of.

Choosing THE Wedding Dress

Something old, something new, something borrowed - but should it always be something blue? Modern brides are getting out of the traditional norm when choosing wedding dresses. It's no longer the customary long white gowns they want to wear. They choose something that personalizes their personalities and their fantasies.

If you're fantasizing to float down the aisle like a dream, spend more time deciding your wedding dress and leave the other bridal details to your mom, sisters, and best friends. The motif of wedding dresses is central to your wedding plans, and if you've decided on a wedding outfit that evokes the tantalizing spell of summer, the other details will easily follow.

Choosing that wedding apparel from a number of spell-binding wedding dresses can be as arduous as conquering Mt. Everest. For starters, be ready to try on a number of wedding gowns and dresses before settling on one that absolutely completes the picture of an idyllic summer wedding. So whether you are choosing to rent one or have one custom-made, be ready to take the time.

Wedding Dresses To Rent

Renting a wedding gown is an option if you are on a budget. But don't think that just because it is one of those rentals, you'll be getting a lousy deal. Wedding gowns and dresses are all equally lovely and stunning and come in different designs, styles, and fabulous fabrics.

You can choose your wedding gown online. You can also get other bridal accessories and jewelry to complete the romantic look you're going for. Since there's no rush when you're renting a wedding gown or dresses for your bridesmaid, you'll be saved from a lot of nail-biting and sleepless nights. You get to see the gowns, try it on, and get the perfect fit.

Off-the-Rack Wedding Apparel

Getting one of those wedding dresses off the rack eliminates some of the headaches that go with choosing your wedding attire. Ask the shop to show you wedding dresses that's picture-pretty for a summer garden wedding. These are generally affordable than custom-made dresses. But since you are in charge here, you have at your disposal a number of gowns to choose from.

Before Getting Your Wedding Dress

Before you rush to rent or buy a wedding gown, cut out pictures of celebrity wedding gowns so you won't be at a loss for words describing what you want. You can also scrounge family albums to check out the vintage designs for a summer or traditional wedding dress.

Here are some valuable tips to get you going:

- * Decide the motif of your wedding.
- * Decide the colors.
- * Determine the budget for your wedding dress.
- * Have a trusted friend with you when you shop.
- * Decide which shape flatters your figure.
- * Try the dress on to check out how you look.
- * Decide on the hairstyle to match the overall bridal picture.

Wedding dresses for rent or off the rack should be selected with care. Remember that when you glide down the aisle, all eyes will be on you, but it's your groom you want to mesmerize, right? So take your time when choosing your wedding gown.

Float like a wonderful dream down the aisle on your wedding day. Choose the perfect fit and pick from an array of wedding dresses and bridal gowns. Let your bridesmaids shine alongside you in stunning bridesmaid dresses. Visit BestforBride.com today and choose from the bridal collections of avant-garde designers with the edge.