

Fun Bridal Shower Favors

Contributed by Denise Sanger
Wednesday, 10 October 2007

Are you hosting the bridal shower for your friend and want to give out fun bridal shower favors? Let us help you with a few unique but fun bridal shower favor ideas.

If you're holding the bridal shower in the fall or winter months, then seasonal themed bridal shower favors are definitely the way to go. Gorgeous yellow, oranges and browns look so festive for October and November showers, while silver, white, and gold favors are perfect for bridal showers held in December, January and February.

A few great ideas for fall showers would be fall candles or fall themed coasters. For winter showers, how about elegant snow flake themed favors or crystal favors that remind one of ice? You can already see these favors shimmering on your guests tables.

Will your bridal shower be held in the spring months of March, April or May? You have an extensive selection of spring and garden themed favors to choose from. Seed wedding favors are a practical bridal shower favor that will remind your guests for months to come of the fun they had at the shower. Flowers are blooming in spring so take your cue from Mother Nature and select a floral themed bridal shower favors such as a daisy or rose favor.

Wedding shower in the warm, summer months? Think beach, backyard picnic, Tropical Island or nautical themes and match your bridal shower favors to your decorations. A beach bucket filled with seashells or a sailboat party favor match beach theme or nautical themed bridal showers.

For a backyard picnic, select butterfly party favors.

Tropical Island? How about flip flop magnets or candles.

Want to simplify your shower favors? The easiest and quickest way to select your bridal shower favors is to match them to the wedding color scheme. Did you bride select pink and chocolate brown? You can choose pink candle favors with a brown ribbon. Is blue the color choice?

Practical party favors such as the something blue post it notes.

Is your bridal shower going to be more of a girl's night out? Lingerie bridal shower? Lingerie parties are all the rage now for brides to be and an absolute blast for the guests. Fun stiletto key chains or pink polka dot purse manicure sets would make great favors.

Just remember to not sweat the little things. Take care of the big things and the rest will fall into place allowing you to enjoy the bridal shower also.

Denise Sanger is the owner of several wedding planning websites including <http://BuyWeddingFavorsOnline.com> which features a diverse catalog of affordable bridal shower favors, unique wedding favors, and decorations.