When you give a ball and a tee for a favor people will remember this every time they see them. You can engrave your names and the date of your day getting married and they will have this forever. Nothing says golf more, and is easier to give out, than a golf ball and tee.

There are so many colors to choose from so you can have the color that goes with your wedding colors. To present the gift you could put them in a nice velvet box, or in a very nice cloth with a bow around it.

When doing favors for the wedding party you could get a special iron just for them if they are golfers too.

There is also plenty of jewelry that has golf on them such as earrings, necklaces, tie clips, and even pens that you can give as presents. Just do a favor that you know your wedding party will enjoy and know that they are there for you because they love you.

When you go on-line looking at unique wedding favors you will find many golf ideas for you that will help keep you under your budget. You could put flags for each hole on each table with you and your partners picture on it with the date. Then your guest could take it home with them.

There are craft stores that can help you find the perfect golf ideas also. You can make some picture books of you and your partner golfing and the fun that you have as you are together. You can get your photo printed out on the course, for every one for as a party favor.

Just take some of these ideas for golf wedding favors and make sure to have fun with it and stay within your budget. It is a memory that your wedding party and your wedding guests will remember and know they got this from you on your happy day.
